

MIGREC

Migration, Integration and Governance Research Centre

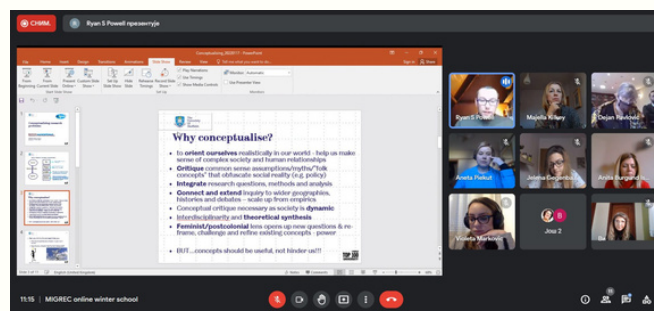

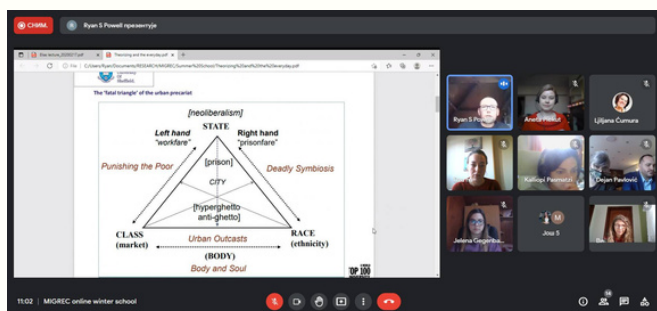

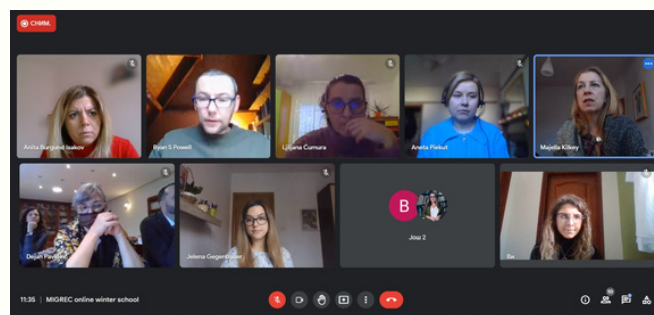

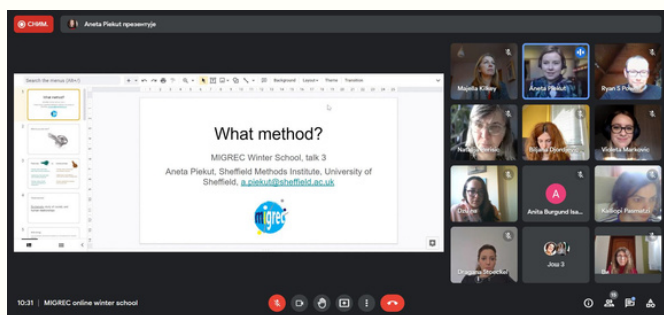

Winter School: Conceptualising Research Problems

The Winter School was organized online on Monday 17th, Tuesday 18th & Wednesday 19th January 2022 by colleagues from the University of Sheffield, Majella Kilkey, Aneta Piekut & Ryan Powell.

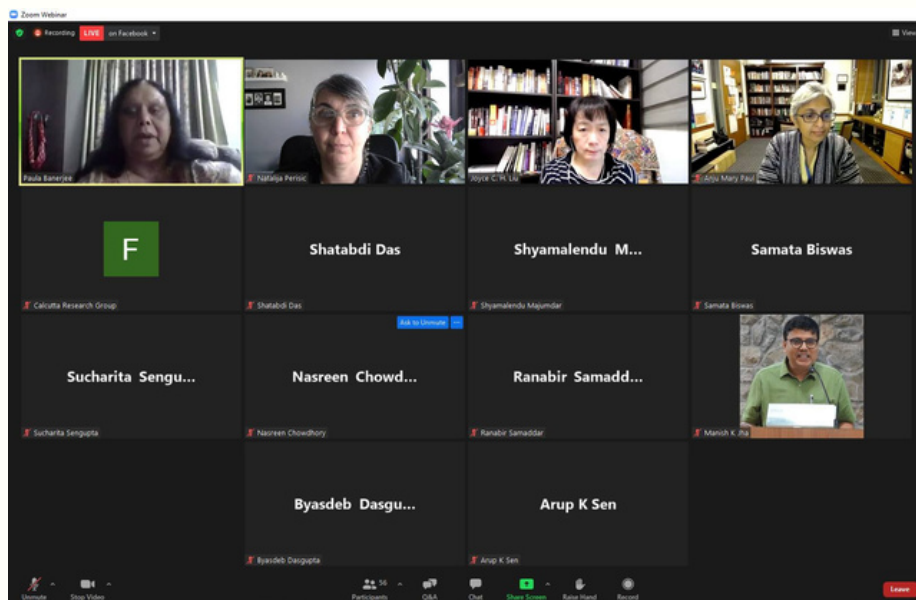

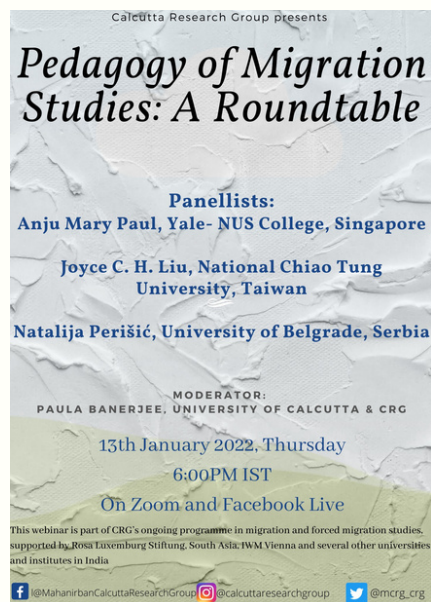

LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

1. To understand the role of conceptualisation in defining and approaching research problems
2. To develop abilities to synthesize and apply concepts to empirical cases
3. To develop a critical understanding of different theorizations within migration studies

Project activities

Prof. Dr. Natalija Perišić participated in the webinar "Pedagogy of Migration Studies" on Thursday 13th January 2022. This webinar is part of CRG's ongoing programme in migration and forced migration studies, supported by Rosa Luxemburg Stiftung, South Asia, IWM Vienna and several other universities and institutes in India.

Danijela Pavlović, a member of the MIGREC team, was a participant in a panel discussion on "Human Trafficking and Prostitution in the 21st Century" organized by the Evangelical Students' Association (EUS) in Glasnik on March 21, 2022. Participants in the panel discussion, in addition to Asst. Danijela Pavlović, were Christina Wuthrich, social worker and director of the association "bLOVED" from Switzerland and Marko Stupar, representative of the EUS.

Visit the project web-site for more information under <http://migrec.fpn.bg.ac.rs/events/>

Follow us

<http://migrec.fpn.bg.ac.rs/>